
November 7: Log Lunch: Fingers on the Pulse of Biodiversity in the Sea (or) “Is that a Shrimp with Orange Legs?” James Carlton, Professor of Marine Sciences & Director of the Williams-Mystic Program. 12:00-1:00 pm, The Log, 78 Spring Street. Lunch reservations ($4) thru url (see college online calendar) or email dlewis @ williams.edu

November 13: Public Lecture: "From Indian Mounds to Urban Parks: A Meditation on the American Landscape Tradition”, Aaron Sachs, Associate Professor of History at Cornell University. 7:00pm, Griffin Hall, Room 3. This talk is sponsored by the Class of 1960 Scholars Program in Environmental Studies.

November 14: Log Lunch: Towards Sustainability: Rethinking the links between population and the environment. Anne Hendrixson, Director, Population and Development Program, Hampshire College, Amherst. 12:00-1:00 pm, The Log, 78 Spring Street. Lunch reservations ($4) thru url (see college online calendar) or email dlewis @ williams.edu

November 21: Log Lunch: Climate Resiliency in our Communities: Climate Change Mitigation and Adaptation, Ezra Small, Campus Sustainability Manager, University of Massachusetts, Amherst. 12:00-1:00 pm, The Log, 78 Spring Street. Lunch reservations ($4) thru url (see college online calendar) or email dlewis @ williams.edu